Exploration - Industry Perspective

John W. Elbon, Vice President/General Manager

Von Braun Symposium, Huntsville, AL
October 16, 2012
International Space Station (ISS)

Macromolecular Crystallization
Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy

Bone Loss

neuroArm: Robotic Arm

“Where the robot entered my head,” says 21-year-old Paige Nickason, the first patient to have brain surgery performed by a robot, as she points to an area on her forehead. “Now that neuroArm has removed the tumor from my brain, it will go on to help many other people like me around the world.”

Human Adaptation
Commercial Crew
Space Launch System (SLS)
Deep Space